

DO YOU EVER GO TO CHURCH? NO?

DID YOU RESOLVE JAN. 1st THAT YOU WOULD BEGIN GOING TO CHURCH AND KEEP IT UP DURING THE YEAR 1905?

NO?

WELL—if you don't go to church, the evening of February 1st will be a good time to start that beneficial habit by going to hear

who will begin a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church of this city on the evening of FEBRUARY 1st.

HE is a PREACHER of EXCEPTIONAL ABILITY. HE is an INTERESTING TALKER and is said by those who have heard him, to possess the power to interest both the cultured and the illiterate.

The strength of a speaker lies in his sincerity, earnestness, logic, and eloquence. Dr. Smiley is said to possess these qualities to an exceptional degree.

EVERYONE in Phoenix who can should go to HEAR HIM.

Dr. Smiley is accompanied by the singing evangelist, Prof. Hanson, who is a musical director of ability.

Eye defects have numerous symptoms, some of which may be easily recognized. This "all mixed up" condition is one of the most common. You read for a short time, when a blurring comes and the print all mixes up, you wink and blink, or close your eyes for a moment to get good vision again.

The next time this blur comes to you, just close your eyes and think about us.

We fit glasses to remove that "mixed up" condition, to relieve defective and overworked eyes. That's the only help for them.

See through our glasses and see right.

A SUDDEN OUTBREAK—Ceshtelli, an ordinarily peaceful citizen, was locked up in jail last night for wrecking his home. He went home in the afternoon and, finding his wife gone, he became enraged. He first broke into the house, which she had locked. Then he destroyed the furniture and went out and rooted up the back yard. He destroyed all the rose bushes, did a well with a sledge post and burned up most of his wife's clothing. In the meantime his wife returned and he kicked her out of the house. Constable Redwine, hearing of this one man riot, went to see about it. He brought Ceshtelli to jail with considerable difficulty. Ceshtelli wanted to give bail last night, and was abundantly able to furnish it, but Justice Burnett, who had issued the warrant for his arrest, declined to admit him.

THE QUARTERLY RALLY—Announcement is made by W. W. Greene, president, and J. G. Rice; address, Work Among Young Women, by Miss Carrie M. Johnson; address, Evangelistic Work Among Young People, by Rev. George H. Brewer. BILLS OF PARTICULARS—Another step, or, rather, two of them, were taken in the sheriff contest yesterday. The contestant, Dr. Richmond, chairman of the republican county committee, filed a document setting forth that an attempt would be made to show that eighteen votes had been illegally cast for Walker in the precincts of McDowell and Verde, and giving the names of the voters, as follows: McDowell, Placido Solares, F. A. Ruiz, Ignacio Soto, Francisco Gallardo, Maximo Mendoza, A. Ochoa, Manuel Mazoum, Antonio Maron and F. Soto; Verde, Perry Sears, George Sears, Marlon Sears, Harry Kay, Ed Cavness, Tom Mercer, Hosea Cline, Claude Marlow and Vol Marlow. Late in the afternoon the convicts filed an amendment to his complaint and demurrer, setting forth that he would prove that twenty-four votes had been illegally cast for Cook, and giving the precincts and names of the voters.

A HEARING FOR SMUGGLING—There was another incident of the alleged Pina smuggling case yesterday. It will be remembered that not long ago complaint was made that the mother of Mr. A. Pina, the Mexican consul here, was handling a lot of Mexican drawn work which had been smuggled into the country. The property was seized and confiscated. Mr. Pina made explanation that the property, or the greater part of it, had been given to his mother, that it was not understood to be subject to duty, and altogether the explanation satisfied the people of this city, who have the greatest confidence in Mr. Pina. The treasury officials were not satisfied, however, and the other day Mr. A. Valentine made complaint before Commissioner Cutler of Tucson against Miss Maria Pina, charging her with having brought the goods into the country without the payment of duty. The papers were yesterday brought before Commissioner Johnston of this district, and Mr. Pina appeared for his sister. The case was set for hearing next Thursday.

JUDICIAL TEMPER RUFFLED—Justice Burnett lost his temper yesterday. It was in the case of C. Wyatt, the hobo barber, charged with robbery from the person of William Sullivan. There seemed no doubt of the guilt of Wyatt. He had been seen going through the person of Sullivan, even to the extent of taking off his shoes, while he was in a state of helpless intoxication. The money stolen from Sullivan was a part of the $25 which his sister had sent him to put up for bail in the burglary case against him. A part of it to be kept until he could find work. The letter in which the money was sent said that the sister had raised it by selling a part of her furniture and mortgaging the rest. Sullivan was the first witness on the stand, and it was plain from the beginning that he meant to shield the hobo barber. The substance of his testimony was that he had given Wyatt permission to rob him. The case naturally ended there, and Assistant Attorney Bullard moved to dismiss. Before doing so, however, the court took occasion to express himself, and he did so in language that was hardly judicial, but which proceeded from an earnest heart. "You dirty dog and loafer," said he to Wyatt, "you're lower down than any other man ever brought before me; I regret very much that the law has been forestalled, but if you remain in town an hour I will send you up for six months. The court denounced Sullivan as an ingrate, and regretted that the poverty of his language prevented him from saying precisely what he thought of him.
